FR. MARTY'S CORNER

Thank you to the families that offered their lawns as sites for neighborhood Masses. Three families have volunteered and I hope that we can set up a schedule this week to accept their offers between now and the end of summer.

Information will be in next weekend's bulletin about our Annual Mission Appeal. The appeal will be the weekend of July 31/August 1 and will be for the Diocese of Kiyinda-Mityana in Uganda.

We have begun the process of planning for the 75th anniversary of Ss. Faith, Hope & Charity Parish which will be celebrated next year. If anyone is interested in helping with the planning, please let me know.

-Fr. Marty O'Donovan

IN THE PARISH

Christmas in July!! TODAY!!

Yes, we are rapidly approaching that special day, July 18, when Faith, Hope and Charity parishioners go all out to abundantly restock the shelves of our four inner-city food pantries. It's not too early to begin gathering the groceries that you intend to donate.

When shopping for your contributions, please keep in mind the need for high protein items such as peanut butter, tuna fish and canned meats. Non sugary cereals, snack bars, dried fruits, pastas and beans of all sorts are recommended. Donations may be delivered to the church any time during the week and should be placed in or near the east side confessional. Remember that when school is out, many children are missing the breakfasts and lunches provided for them at school. The number of requests is very high in our four pantries. One recently reported close to 1500 in one week! Please participate in this wonderful opportunity to ease the hunger that many are feeling. Blue envelopes are welcomed!

If you know now that you will be away on that week-end, please bring your donations earlier and help to fill the east side confessional. Blue food pantry envelopes can be put in the collection basket any time.

The poor and hungry need your help! Get in the Christmas spirit!!!

U.S. Catholic On-Line: How Does Church Teaching Change?

Did you know that confession was recognized as a sacrament in 1215? That transubstantiation was accepted into Church teaching in the 16th century? The teaching of the Church has developed over the centuries. "Every doctrine or practice familiar to Catholics has a history of its own, and some official expressions of church teaching are quite recent, such as the dogmas of the Immaculate Conception (1854) and Assumption of Mary (1950). That doctrine is slow to become official or may even change has to do with the nature of divine revelation: By definition, it is God's self-giving, and God cannot be fully captured by any human expression. The growth, change, and expansion of church teaching is often referred to as the "development of doctrine..." Read more at: <http://www.uscatholic.org/church/2010/05/how-does-church-teaching-change>

NUESTROS PEQUENOS HERMANOS (Our Little Brothers and Sisters)

“On a hot summer day in 1954 a young boy entered a church in Cuernavaca, Mexico. His name was Carlos, and his hunger drove him to steal money from the collection box. Carlos was arrested and due to receive a harsh sentence for his crime. The newly ordained priest of the church, Father William B. Wasson, asked the court to show mercy. He asked the judge for custody of Carlos so that he could feed him, clothe him, and provide a home for him. The judge accepted. In fact, the judge continued to send boys to Father Wasson. By the end of the year, 32 boys were in his care and Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos (NPH, Spanish for "Our Little Brothers and Sisters") was born.”

“NPH provides orphaned, abandoned and disadvantaged children with an opportunity to end the cycle of poverty. Children are given a safe home, warm meals and an education. Most importantly, they are given unconditional love and support.” (www.friendsoftheorphans.org)

NPH operates ten orphanages in nine countries in Latin America, Mexico and the Caribbean caring for over 3,300 children.

In October, a group of children from NPH in Mexico will visit the Chicago area. FHC families will host these children for ten days, while they sing and perform folkloric dances at area parishes. On Sunday, October 24 the children will share their talent at our morning Masses, followed by a Fiesta Grande benefit luncheon.

The Fiesta Grande will need the support and help of the entire parish. If you are interested in helping with this event, please contact:
