ST. BLAISE

FEAST DAY
FEBRUARY 3

St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life.

History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived.

Series - Pope Leo's Dilexi Te (On Love for the Poor)

What is the pope's teaching on the economy?

In Dilexi te, Pope Leo says that the "dictatorship of an economy that kills" continues to prevail; the wealth of the few continues to grow "exponentially" while the gap between rich and poor increases; and "ideologies that defend the absolute autonomy of the marketplace and financial speculation" remain widespread" (92). All of this, Pope Leo says, indicates the continued existence of a "throwaway culture", sometimes "well disguised", that "tolerates with indifference that millions of people die of hunger or survive in conditions unfit for human beings" (96, 11).

Pope Leo thus calls for a "change in mentality"....Sometimes, Pope Leo observes, Christians allow themselves to succumb to attitudes shaped by "secular ideologies or political and economic approaches that lead to gross generalizations and mistaken conclusions" (15). Pope Leo warns that if "any Church community" does not cooperate "in helping the poor to live with dignity....It will easily drift into a spiritual worldliness camouflaged by religious practices, unproductive meetings and empty talk" (113).

Excerpted from an article by Salvatore Cernuzio in the Vatican News (vaticannews.va), October 9, 2025

Dilexi te calls us to reflect as individual Christians and as a faith community on how we are answering Christ's call to love and care for the poor. In it, Pope Leo calls upon Christians to not just talk, but act. Pope Leo defines "the poor" broadly in the document, to include "those who lack material means of subsistence;those who are socially marginalized...; those of moral and spiritual poverty;...those who have no rights, no space, no freedom," no voice.
